CFHLA FOUNDATION #GIVINGTUESDAY

This week for #GivingTuesday, our CFHLA Foundation was able to support two of our local organizations, including Lift Orlando and the Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts, which continue to provide a positive impact in our community.

In 2018, the CFHLA Foundation made a commitment to support Lift Orlando with an annual pledge of $20,000 per year for 5 years ($100,000 total). The purpose of this nonprofit was to strengthen the five historic neighborhoods just west of downtown Orlando, called The Communities of West Lakes, by investing in mixed-income housing, cradle-to-career education, community health and wellness, and economic viability.

In addition, the CFHLA Foundation also made a pledge in 2015 to the Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts by committing to donate $25,000 per year for 10 years ($250,000 total). The Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts continues to focus on making the arts accessible to people from all walks of life—all over the world.

The CFHLA Foundation is incredibly proud to continue these multi-year commitments and we look forward to our continued partnership with both organizations.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM RICK PATTERSON

Just over a few weeks ago, I looked forward to attending the CFHLA Networking Luncheon at the JW Marriott, Orlando Grande Lakes.

Little did I know that this luncheon would be a life changing event for me. I also did not know at the time that the featured speaker, Jon McGavin, would have a "hand" in my survival that day.

For those of you in attendance, what you witnessed was an extremely small piece of plaque become loose and block a major artery to my heart. There was no pain, the lights simply went out.

The truly extraordinary part of my story that day, was that due to the location of my medical event at a major hotel and the incredibly quick action of CFHLA members, the hotel staff and Orange County EMS, I have survived the incident.

I've had "stint" put in place and now recovering at home and the prognosis is very good.

You have probably heard the phrase "confluence of events".

In my case, such a "confluence" took place.

Location, timing, certain people with certain skills, all came together at a moment in time to save my life.

Saying thank you will never be enough.

Should anyone wish to say hello, by phone is 407-909-9850 and my email address is rick@apgplanning.com.

I wish you all a Happy Holidays and hope to see you all at a future CFHLA event.
