STATE OF ORANGE COUNTY ADDRESS

Today, CFHLA was proud to host the 2022 State of Orange County Address, featuring Orange County Mayor Jerry L. Demings, once again at the Orange County Convention Center.

Thank you to the nearly 1,000 attendees who joined us in person (and many more virtually), as Mayor Demings highlighted our record-breaking tourist development tax collections in 2022, as well as an overview of the accomplishments achieved by Orange County Government, its residents, businesses and community partners over the past year. Some of the highlights included bold investments from our tourism partners, transportation and infrastructure projects, and the growing support for additional affordable housing options within our community.

MICHELIN STAR

On Thursday, June 9th, the Ritz-Carlton Orlando, Grande Lakes hosted the Michelin Guide, where they revealed their Florida Michelin Star winners. In total, 34 Orlando restaurants will be included in the inaugural edition of the Florida MICHELIN Guide which included four Starred, seven Bib Gourmands and 23 Recommended.

This is the first time that Michelin stars were ever awarded in Florida and in order to achieve a Michelin star, restaurants are rated anonymously on five criteria: quality of products, mastery of flavor and cooking techniques, the personality of the chef represented in the dining experience, harmony of flavors and consistency between inspector visits.

Congratulations to CFHLA Members the Knife & Spoon at the Ritz-Carlton Orlando, Grande Lakes and Capa at the Four Seasons Resort Orlando in the Walt Disney World Resort on achieving a One Michelin Star status!

Chef John Tesar of Knife & Spoon, Jon McGavin of Grande Lakes Orlando and CFHLA President/CEO Robert Agrusa

This week, the U.S. Travel Association, together with Brand USA, hosted the 53rd Annual IPW conference at the Orange County Convention Center.

Following more than two years of international closures, Orlando was very excited to host the world and reunite more than 4,600 travel industry delegates - from 60+ countries - as we ignite new business opportunities, reconnect with longtime friends and fuel the rebound of international travel.

Congratulations to the Visit Orlando and Visit FLORIDA on an incredibly successful week of hosting and thank you to Experience Kissimmee for their partnership, in supporting this regional effort!

CFHLA thanks Brand USA and the U.S. Travel Association for bringing this important tourism conference to Orlando and our partners did a fantastic job in showcasing our destination as an incredible place to visit!
